5. These Terms supersede all provisions previously in force between the Customer and the Bank concerning the subject matter covered by these Terms. Subject to the foregoing, these Terms supplement and are in addition to the terms and conditions in all other documents issued by the Bank to the Customer, entered into by the Customer in favour of or accepted by the Bank, otherwise agreed between the Bank and the Customer or designated by the Bank as a Finance Document (collectively and including these Terms, each Application Form and each Facility Agreement, the “Finance Documents”).

If there is any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions of these Terms and those terms in any other Finance Document, the following order of priority shall apply:

unless otherwise agreed by the Bank.

PART A – SERVICES TERMS

1. Account Statements

Account statements, confirmations, or advices (the “Account Statements”) will be issued to the Customer at the frequency and in the manner advised to the Customer from time to time. It is the Customer’s responsibility to examine promptly each Account Statement and any accompanying item which the Customer receives or which is made available to the Customer. The Customer must report any irregularities to the Bank in writing immediately after becoming aware of them, including any suspected fraudulent, improper or unauthorised activity in respect of the Services used by the Customer. Neither the Bank nor any other Maybank Member shall be responsible for the Customer’s reliance on balance, transaction or other information in any Account Statement as such information may be further updated, subsequently corrected or provided to the Bank by a third party.

2. Collections Service

2.1 Deposits

(A) The Bank will credit the relevant Account with an amount equal to any Deposit in accordance with the clearing time period(s) and procedure(s) applicable to that Deposit.

(B) Unless agreed otherwise by the Bank, the Bank will process any Payment Instrument received by the Bank on a Collection basis. This means that the Bank may defer the credit or Payment of that Payment Instrument to the relevant Account for a reasonable period of time, in accordance with the Bank’s normal practice, and will not be obligated to pay the Customer until the Bank receives unconditional funds for that Payment Instrument.

(C) The Bank may agree with other banks and clearing houses certain procedures and/or deadlines required to process any Payment Instrument and may impose such procedures and/or deadlines on the Customer. The Bank has the right to choose the method of clearing any Payment Instrument and may employ any Agent in the process.

(D) The Bank will not check the sufficiency or accuracy of the information in any Payment Instrument. However, the Bank has the right to reject any Payment Instrument which does not conform to the Bank’s specifications and/or industry standards, including any Payment Instrument which has incomplete information and/or has been altered, mutilated, and/or is unclear.

(E) If the currency of a Deposit is different from the currency of the Account to which it is designated to be credited to, the Bank may convert the Deposit into the currency of that Account at the Bank’s prevailing exchange rate or, in the absence of such a rate and to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, such other exchange rate as the Bank may reasonably specify. The Customer will pay and the Bank is authorised to deduct from any Account such fees which the Bank may charge for such a conversion. If the Bank accepts any payment instruction made in the Customer’s name in a currency other than the account currency, the Bank has the right to deduct the equivalent amount of the foreign currency from the relevant account (or any other account), using the Bank’s prevailing exchange rate or (if such rate does not exist) another exchange rate reasonably designated by the Bank. However, such instruction shall not be executed unless and until the Bank receives all documents as required under applicable laws and regulations.

2.2 Direct Debit

(A) The Bank may upon the Customer’s request, arrange to collect and receive regular payments from the Customer’s Account using direct debit or autodebit facilities (the “Direct Debit Service or AutoDebit Service”). The Bank’s ability to offer the Direct Debit Service or AutoDebit Service will depend on the availability of a domestic payment network in the relevant location to support such Direct Debit Service or AutoDebit Service.

- (B) The Customer must provide the Bank with any Mandate, consent or form filled in by its payment counterparty in the manner as prescribed by the Bank to effect the relevant Direct Debit Service or AutoDebit Service. The Bank will not effect any Direct Debit Service or AutoDebit Service for that payment counterparty until the Bank has verified the authenticity and/or completeness of the relevant Authorisation in accordance with the Bank's security procedures. 2.3
- (C) If the Bank rejects any Mandate, consent or form the Customer has provided to effect the relevant Direct Debit Service or AutoDebit Service for its payment counterparty, the Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that such Mandate, consent or form should not be returned to the Bank without carrying out the necessary corrections after obtaining the correct details from the payment counterparty. 2.4
- (D) The Customer is solely responsible for its payment counterparty's data accuracy and authority provided by its payment counterparty and the Bank shall in no way be held responsible for the same.
- (E) The Customer undertakes: (1) not to provide the Bank with any Mandate, consent or form which its payment counterparty has withdrawn or which has expired; (2) that the amounts provided in the Mandate, consent or form are within the agreed limits provided by its payment counterparty; and (3) that the Mandate, consent or form will be provided for execution / settlement only as per the date stipulated by the payment counterparty.
- (F) In the case of any claims from the payment counterparty's bank or the payment counterparty, the Customer undertakes to refund the amount credited to the relevant Account under the Direct Debit Service or AutoDebit Service and authorise the Bank to debit any Account held by the Customer towards the refund the Bank makes (or will make) to the payment counterparty or the payment counterparty's bank.

Bills Payment Facility

The Bank may upon the Customer's request provide the Customer with a bills payment facility to assist the Customer with the Collection of payments from the Customer's payment counterparty. If the Bank does so, the Bank is not responsible for monitoring or reconciliation of any payments made by the Customer's payment counterparty to the Customer.

Virtual Account

- (A) The Bank may upon the Customer's request provide the Customer with such number of Virtual Accounts as agreed between the Customer and the Bank as part of the Bank's Collections Service ("Virtual Account Service"). Any Deposits made to the Virtual Account will be automatically credited to the Account designated by the Customer for Collection (the "Collection Master Account").
- (B) The Customer undertakes sole responsibility for the assignment, allocation, maintenance, termination and/ or Communication of the details of the Virtual Account to its payee and the Customer agrees to assist the Bank with, or implement itself, any remedial steps the Bank may propose in relation to the Virtual Account Service, Virtual Account and/ or the Collection Master Account. The Bank is not responsible for the monitoring or reconciliation of any payments made by the Customer's payee to the Customer.
- (C) The Customer shall follow any operational and security requirement(s) as the Bank may specify for the Virtual Account.

- (D) The Customer may assign a Virtual Account name or identification number that differs from that of the Collection Master Account.
- (E) A Virtual Account shall automatically be closed when the corresponding Collection Master Account is closed. If the Bank exercises its right to terminate such Virtual Account, the Bank is not obliged to transfer or consolidate any balance from the Collection Master Account to any other account held by the Bank for the Customer or such other member of the Customer's corporate group.

3. Liquidity Management Services

3.1 Physical Sweeping

- (A) The Bank may upon the Customer's request offer the Customer the Service (the "Physical Sweeping Service") whereby the Bank transfers all, or a portion, of the available cash from an Account to another account (in the Customer's name or in the name of another entity within the Customer's corporate group) held by the Bank. The Physical Sweeping Service may be applied against or involve accounts held by the Bank with debit balances.
- (B) The Physical Sweeping Service shall be limited to the accounts held by the Bank in the same jurisdiction and in the same currency.
- (C) If the Bank suspects or becomes aware of any legal or regulatory action which may affect any cash or the Account which is subject to the Physical Sweeping Service, the Bank may suspend all Services under the Physical Sweeping Service until the Bank's concerns or suspicions have been resolved fully to the Bank's satisfaction.

3.2 Notional Pooling

- (A) The Bank may upon the Customer's request offer the Customer the Service (the "Notional Pooling Service") where the Bank transfers and/or consolidates (on a notional or virtual basis) the balance on the Customer's designated Account with such other account held by the Bank for the Customer or such other member of the Customer's corporate group (the "Notional Pooling Master Account").

- (B) The Notional Pooling Service will not involve the physical transfer of funds and any Notional Pooling Service shall be limited to any account held by the Bank in the same jurisdiction and in the same currency.
- (C) Regardless of any amount which the Customer has notionally transferred and/or consolidated, the Customer irrevocably and unconditionally jointly and severally guarantees and undertakes to the Bank that the Customer will be liable for any debit balance on any Notional Pooling Master Account or any other account held by the other Notional Pooling Participating Entity with the Bank pursuant to the Notional Pooling Service. The Customer undertakes that it shall as a principal debtor and primary obligor indemnify the Bank against any Loss which the Bank may incur or suffer as a result of a Notional Pooling Participating Entity not paying any amount due to the Bank. This guarantee and undertaking is a continuing guarantee and undertaking and will extend to the ultimate balance of sums payable by any Notional Pooling Participating Entity to the Bank, regardless of any intermediate payment or discharge in whole or in part. The Customer waives any right it may have of first requiring the Bank to proceed against or enforce any other rights or security or claim payment from any other person before claiming from the Customer under this Clause 3.2 of the Services Terms. This guarantee and undertaking is in addition to and not in any way prejudiced by any other guarantee, undertaking or security now or subsequently held by the Bank or any other Maybank Member.

- (D) The Bank may retain, apply or set-off any money, Deposits or balances held in, or standing to the credit of, any Account in any currency towards the satisfaction of any obligations due from any other Notional Pooling Participating Entity to the Bank.

- (C) The Customer may revoke or replace any Mandate for the standing Instruction at any time by notifying the Bank. Any change will not be effected unless the Bank has a reasonable period of time to enable the Bank to act on or effect the change.
- (D) Until the Bank notifies the Customer of the Bank's acceptance of the revocation or change in the Mandate for the relevant standing Instruction, the Customer should continue to act on the basis of the Bank's previous Mandate and the Bank will not be responsible for any Loss incurred by the Customer or otherwise.

If the Bank does not receive a Payment Instruction prior to the cut-off time applicable to the Service in question, it will be treated as having been received on the following Business Day.
- (B) The Bank may reject a Payment Instruction if: (1) the Customer has insufficient cleared funds in, or it would cause the Customer to exceed any arranged credit limit on, the Account; or (2) it exceeds the maximum value set by the Bank for that type of payment transaction. In determining whether the Bank will reject a Payment Instruction, the Bank may consider any other Instructions (including any Payment Instruction) the Bank received in respect of the Account or which have already been authorised, even if the relevant Payments have not already been deducted.
- (C) Without prejudice to Clause 4.1(B) of the Services Terms, if the Bank decides (in its discretion) to accept a Payment Instruction that causes the Account to go overdrawn, or to exceed an arranged credit limit, the Customer will be deemed to have requested for an overdraft or credit limit extension (as applicable) for which the Bank may charge a fee and debit interest.

4.3 Cheque Outsourcing

- (A) The Bank may upon the Customer's request offer the Customer the Service where the Bank customises, formats, prints, issues and/or delivers any Payment Instrument on the Customer's behalf for Payment to the Authorised Person(s) the Customer designates (the "Cheque Outsourcing Service").
- (B) The Customer authorises the Bank to sign any Payment Instrument (to the extent necessary) on the Customer's behalf by affixing or printing the signature(s) of the Authorised Person(s) the Customer designates in respect of the relevant Account. The Bank may (regardless of whether the Bank has already done so for any other Service) ask for such evidence which the Bank may specify in order to establish that an Authorised Person(s) have been duly authorised.

(C) The Customer acknowledges and accepts the risk that any delivery of any Payment Instrument may be delayed or lost in transit. The Customer agrees not to hold the Bank liable for any Loss if this occurs.

(D) The Customer represents to the Bank that the Customer owns or have been granted a valid licence to use any Intellectual Property which the Customer has provided to the Bank for use in connection with the Cheque Outsourcing Service. (E) The Customer represents that the printing of any Payment Instrument involving any Intellectual Property the Customer provided to the Bank will not infringe such Intellectual Property and the Customer agrees to notify the Bank immediately of any facts or circumstances of which the Customer is aware which indicates or suggests any such infringement or risk of infringement.

5. Foreign Exchange Rate Booking

5.1 Instructions

(A) The Bank will execute any Payment Instruction it receives from the Customer in accordance with the clearing time periods applicable to the FX Rates Booking Service. If the Bank does not receive a Payment Instruction prior to the cut-off time applicable to the FX Rates Booking Service, such Payment Instruction will be treated as having been received on the next following Business Day and/or expired (in the Bank's absolute discretion).

(B) The Bank may reject a Payment Instruction if: (1) the Customer has insufficient cleared funds in, or it would cause the Customer to exceed any arranged credit limit on, the Account; or (2) it exceeds the maximum value set by the Bank for that type of payment transaction. In determining whether the Bank will reject a Payment Instruction, the Bank may consider any other Instructions (including any Payment Instruction) the Bank received in respect of the Account or which have already been authorised, even if the relevant Payments have not already been deducted.

(C) Without prejudice to Clause 5.1(B) of the Services Terms, if the Bank decides (in its discretion) to accept a Payment Instruction that causes the Account to go overdrawn, or to exceed an arranged credit limit, the Customer will be deemed to have requested for an overdraft or credit limit extension (as applicable) for which the Bank may charge a fee and debit interest.

(D) The Bank may act on any Instructions issued through the relevant Channel and in accordance with its reasonable interpretation of such Instruction, and without derogation of its other rights hereunder, the Bank reserves the further right to refuse to execute or act upon an Instruction where it is inconsistent with the Bank's policies or any rules or regulations currently in force, for security reasons, where it is ambiguous, incomplete or inconsistent with any previous Instructions given, or for any other reasons, and the Bank reserves the right to request for further information or verification in relation to a particular transaction prior to the execution of the same.

(E) Should the Customer have any reason to believe that an Instruction issued to the Bank is inaccurate or incomplete or has not been accurately or completely received by the Bank, the Customer shall inform the Bank by telephone and confirm the same in writing via email immediately or in any case no later than 4.30 pm on the same day of the issuance to the Bank of the particular Instruction or request.

PART B – TRADE TERMS

1. Issuance of LC and Back-to-Back LC

1.1 The Customer acknowledges that:

- (A) (unless the Bank designates otherwise in the LC) any LC the Bank issues or amends shall be subject to UCP and, where electronic presentation is required, eUCP;
- (B) the Bank reserves the right to, at its sole discretion, select and appoint the advising bank for the LC, irrespective of any preference specified by the Customer in any Finance Document;
- (C) the Bank may, at its sole discretion, designate a nominated bank for negotiation or a confirming bank for confirmation, regardless of any preference indicated by the Customer in any Finance Document;
- (D) the Bank has an obligation to honour electronic and/or paper presentations made in compliance with the terms of the LC (regardless of any contrary Instructions the Customer gives to the Bank); and
- (E) if an Instrument relates to shipment of Goods in instalments within stated periods and the shipper fails to ship in any designated period, shipments of subsequent instalments may nevertheless be made in their respective designated periods and the Bank is authorised to honour and pay any demand submitted by the beneficiary under the Instrument.

1.2 If the Bank determines that a presentation, whether electronic, paper-based, or a combination of both, is not made in compliance with the terms of the LC, the Bank may refuse to honour such presentation. Even if the Customer instructs the Bank to waive all discrepancies, the Bank, in its absolute discretion, shall decide whether to honour such presentation.

1.3 If there are any legal, regulatory, or licensing requirements applicable to the purchase, import, export, shipping or forwarding of any Goods or Services as stated in any Finance Document or the financing thereof, the Customer must ensure that it has obtained all necessary licences, approvals, permissions or clearances and complied with any such regulations so that such relevant legal restrictions (if any) do not apply to those Goods. The Customer shall provide the Bank with evidence of such compliance upon request. Without prejudice to Clause 9.4 of the Trade Terms, if the Customer fails to provide the required evidence or if the Bank, at its sole discretion, determines that the evidence is unsatisfactory, the Bank reserves the right to decline the issuance of the LC.

1.4 The Bank may, at its sole discretion, issue a baby LC upon the Customer's request under the Application Form. However, the Bank is under no obligation to issue a baby LC, even if it has received and authenticated the master LC. Any issuance of a baby LC shall be subject to the Bank's internal assessment, including but not limited to the determination of whether the Customer has satisfactorily complied with all the terms and conditions of the Back-to-Back LC facility.

1.5 The Bank's issuance of a baby LC shall be subject to Clauses 1.1 to 1.4 of the Trade Terms. The Customer further agrees to the following obligations:

- (A) in respect of the master LC, not to accept any amendments to the master LC without notifying the Bank and obtaining the Bank's consent to the amendment;
- (B) to allow the Bank to retain any document presented under the baby LC, whether in electronic or paper form; and

(C) to deliver to the Bank immediately on the Bank's demand any other document required to facilitate a complying presentation under the master LC.

1.6 Upon the Bank determining that each document presented under the LC, whether in electronic or paper form, strictly complies with its terms and conditions, the Customer shall irrevocably make a payment to the Bank in accordance with the payment terms stipulated in the LC issued by the Bank. The Customer irrevocably authorises and acknowledges that payment shall be made by the Customer through either:

- (A) the Customer authorising the Bank to debit the Customer's Account for the full amount due under the LC; or
- (B) the Customer ensuring full compliance with all requirements necessary for the Customer to draw down and utilise its trade financing facility to fulfil its Payment Obligation (inclusive of Payment Obligations under an eUCP presentation, where applicable).

1.7 The Customer shall take all necessary actions to ensure the availability of funds or trade financing facilities to fulfil its Payment Obligations, including securing approvals, maintaining sufficient Credit Lines and ensuring that no restrictions impede the timely settlement of payment.

1.8 The Bank shall send any Communication in relation to any decision made by it on the compliance of the documents presented under an LC in any manner and through any Channel as it may deem appropriate.

1.9 If any amendment is made to an Instrument at the request of the Customer, including but not limited to:

- (A) an extension of its validity period;
- (B) an extension of the claim period;
- (C) a change in its terms and conditions;
or

(D) a change in its value,

the Customer acknowledges and agrees that all unaltered terms and conditions of the original Instrument shall continue to apply and remain binding on the Customer in relation to the amended Instrument. The Customer further agrees that any action taken by the Bank in accordance with such amendments shall be deemed to be within the scope of the Customer's original obligations.

2. Trust Receipts

2.1 Any Trade Document and the underlying Goods which the Bank delivers or entrusts to the Customer pursuant to this Service and as identified under any Finance Document relating to this Service, and the proceeds relating to such Trade Document and underlying Goods shall:

- (A) be held to the Bank's order and on trust for the Bank; and
- (B) continue to be pledged to the Bank and be regarded as Pledged Items pursuant to the terms of Clause 12.4 of the Trade Terms.

2.2 The Customer acknowledges and undertakes that all of the Bank's rights and all the Customer's obligations relating to these Pledged Items including those set out in Clause 12.4 of the Trade Terms shall continue. The Customer agrees to comply fully with the Bank's instructions relating to these Pledged Items and in particular the Customer agrees to return to the Bank all the Pledged Items including any other document the Customer received in exchange of any Pledged Item which the Bank has delivered or entrusted to the Customer. Subject to any requirements under Applicable Law, the Bank may (if the Bank chooses to do so) take possession of any Trade Goods at any time without notifying the Customer in advance.

2.3 The Bank agrees to give the Customer permission to sell or dispose of any or all of the Pledged Items provided that the proceeds of sale are paid to an account designated by the Bank to satisfy all Payment Obligations. The Bank is not responsible for the form, sufficiency, accuracy or genuineness of any Trade Document or for the quality or quantity of the underlying Goods.

2.4 The Customer agrees not to sell or dispose of any of the Pledged Items on deferred payment terms, for non-monetary consideration or for less than the market value of the Pledged Items without the Bank's prior written consent if the proceeds of sale are insufficient to satisfy all Payment Obligations.

2.5 If the Bank requests, the Customer agrees to deliver to the Bank copies of any document or Invoice evidencing the sale of and the sale price of the Pledged Items.

3. Shipping guarantee and endorsement of transport document

3.1 The Customer acknowledges that the Bank may, at its sole discretion, sign or endorse any guarantee, indemnity, transport document or instrument if it is in a form acceptable to the Bank and if it complies with the Bank's internal policies, risk assessments and legal requirements. Such signing or endorsement by the Bank shall not create any independent obligations or liabilities beyond the scope of the underlying transaction and the Customer's counter-indemnity obligations.

3.2 The Customer agrees that it shall not encumber, assign or grant security over the Goods to any other party except in favour of the Bank in accordance with Clause 12.4 of the Trade Terms.

3.3 The Customer further represents, warrants and confirms that it is the rightful owner of the relevant Goods and that it is the sole and rightful owner of the relevant Goods, free from any third-party claims, encumbrances or competing ownership interests. The Customer also affirms that, at the time of applying for this Service, the original transport document has not yet been received.

3.4 The Customer authorises the Bank to honour and pay any demand submitted by the beneficiary under a shipping guarantee, provided that such demand complies with the terms and conditions of the shipping guarantee. The Customer further authorises the Bank to debit the Customer's Account for any such payment. The Bank shall have no obligation to conduct any further examination or verification and shall not be responsible for assessing the validity, authenticity or legitimacy of any demand submitted by the beneficiary.

3.5 If the Bank, at its sole discretion, signs or endorses any guarantee, indemnity, transport document or instrument in a form acceptable to the Bank and in compliance with its internal policies, risk assessment and legal requirements, the Customer shall not refuse, reject or contest any documents required under the LC issued by the Bank in connection with this Service. Furthermore, the Customer expressly waives any right to dispute such documents and agrees to hold the Bank harmless under any circumstances, including but not limited to the following:

(A) where the Bank has identified discrepancies in the documents, whether or not these discrepancies have been communicated to the Customer, including but not limited to cases where the LC has expired;

(B) where the discrepancies have been communicated to the Customer, but the Customer has nonetheless rejected or refused the documents; and

(C) where the discrepancies have not been communicated to the Customer.

3.6 The Customer shall ensure that: (A) all documents required under the LC related to the relevant Goods will be received by the Customer in due course or submitted to the Bank directly by the Carrier; and (B) upon receipt of the original bill of lading, the party to whom the shipping guarantee has been issued, whether the Carrier, shipping Agent, or any other relevant entity, promptly returns to the Bank the relevant guarantee, indemnity, transport document or instrument that the Bank has signed or endorsed under this Service and formally releases the Bank from any associated obligations. The Customer shall ensure that this is completed as soon as possible and no later than the deadline stipulated by the Bank to the Customer.

3.7 The Customer shall, as required by the Bank, take all the necessary steps to facilitate the termination and cancellation of the Bank's liabilities under the relevant guarantee, indemnity, transport document or instrument which the Bank has signed or endorsed under this Service. This includes, but is not limited to, ensuring that all required documents are returned to the Bank and that any release or discharge confirmations are obtained from the relevant parties within the timeframe stipulated by the Bank.

3.8 The terms set out in Clause 2 of the Trade Terms shall apply to any Goods the Customer takes possession of from the Carrier, shipping Agent or any other relevant entity as if such Goods are the Goods which the Bank delivers or entrusts to the Customer in accordance with that Clause.

3.9 If the Bank requires, the Customer must in support of its application for this Service, provide the Bank with a contract, sales agreement, or any other document evidencing the contractual arrangement between the Customer and the seller, in a format acceptable to the Bank.

4. Trade finance guarantees & SBLs

4.1 Unless the Bank designates otherwise in the relevant Instrument, any Instrument issued on the Customer's Instruction or on their behalf will be subject to the following:

- (A) Standby Letters of Credit will be governed by the ISP98 or UCP as selected in the Application Form. If no selection is made, ISP98 or its latest version will apply by default;

- (B) Demand Guarantees and Counter Guarantees will be governed by the URDG; and

- (C) Bank Guarantees will be subject to the Applicable Laws, regulations and commercial banking practices of the country where the Bank issues the Instrument.

4.2 The Bank may issue a Counter Guarantee in favour of:

- (A) an entity acting as guarantor for the issuance of a guarantee in favour of the relevant beneficiary; and

- (B) a counter guarantor which in turn issues a counter guarantee in favour of a guarantor or a counter guarantor.

4.3 The Bank retains full discretion in approving or rejecting the relevant guarantor or a counter guarantor for the purposes of Clause 4.2 of the Trade Terms. The Bank shall not be obliged to follow any preference indicated by the Customer and its decision regarding the appointment of the counter guarantor(s) shall be final and binding.

4.4 The terminology and convention used to refer to the Instrument may vary due to the Bank's internal policies, operational frameworks or external regulatory requirements. However, any such variation does not affect the rights of the Bank, the underlying obligation of the Bank as the guarantor or issuer, nor does it alter the Customer's responsibility under the Instrument. The rights, obligations and liabilities of both the Bank and the Customer remain governed by these Terms and the terms and conditions of issuance, regardless of the name used for the Instrument.

4.5 The Bank retains full discretion to determine the acceptable format, wording, provisions, structure and terms of any Instrument at the point of issuance. Any proposed modifications or amendments by the Customer shall be subject to the Bank's sole discretion and approval.

4.6 If the Customer requests the Bank to issue any Instrument on behalf of a third party, the Bank may require an indemnity from the third party in the Bank's favour. For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer's obligation to indemnify the Bank shall remain absolute and shall not be negated or reduced in any manner, regardless of any amendment or variation to the underlying transaction in connection with which such Instrument was issued.

4.7 The Customer confirms that the issuance of a guarantee to the beneficiary on behalf of a third party for the Customer's account is of commercial benefit to the Customer and acknowledges that the issuance of such guarantee is in reliance of the Customer's confirmation herein and that the Customer will not dispute the evidence of such commercial benefit.

4.8 The Customer authorises the Bank to honour and pay any demand submitted by the beneficiary under the Instrument, provided that such demand complies with the terms and conditions of the respective Instrument. The Customer further authorises the Bank to debit the Customer's Account for any such payment. The Bank shall have no obligation to conduct any further examination or verification and shall not be responsible for assessing the validity, authenticity or legitimacy of any demand submitted by the beneficiary.

4.9 The Customer agrees that upon the issuance of any Instrument, the Customer shall be responsible for all amounts associated with such issuance, including any applicable fees, interest and costs incurred. Furthermore, in line with Clause 4.7 of the Trade Terms, the Customer acknowledges that any amount paid by the Bank in honouring a demand submitted by the beneficiary under the Instrument, along with any interest and costs incurred, shall be immediately payable by the Customer. The Customer further authorises the Bank to debit the Customer's Account for the full amount paid, including all associated interests and costs as set out in Clause 4.8 of the Trade Terms.

4.10 If any amendment is made to an Instrument at the request of the Customer, including but not limited to:

- (A) an extension of its validity period;
- (B) an extension of the claim period;
- (C) a change in its terms and conditions;
or
- (D) a change in its value,

the Customer acknowledges and agrees that all unaltered terms and conditions of the original Instrument shall continue to apply and remain binding on the Customer in relation to the amended Instrument. The Customer further agrees that any action taken by the Bank in accordance with such amendments shall be deemed to be within the scope of the Customer's original obligations.

4.11 If an Instrument has been issued by the Bank, all relevant fees and/or expenses paid by the Customer to the Bank shall be non-refundable for any reason whatsoever, including if there is a cancellation of the Instrument prior to its expiry date.

5. Sanctions Clause

5.1 The Customer acknowledges that the Bank may, at its discretion, incorporate a sanctions clause and disclaimer, as may be updated or amended from time to time (the "Sanctions Clause") in any Instrument issued by the Bank. The prevailing version of the Sanctions Clause reads as follows:

"Presentation of document(s) that is/are not in compliance with the applicable anti-boycott, anti-money laundering, anti-terrorism, anti-drug trafficking, and economic sanctions laws and regulations is not valid. Applicable laws vary depending on the transaction and may include United Nations, United States, and/or local laws."

The Sanctions Clause may be updated or amended from time to time by the Bank at its sole discretion in accordance with any requirements under Applicable Law.

5.2 In the event the Customer requests the exclusion, removal or amendment of the Sanctions Clause in any Instrument for any reason whatsoever and the Bank so accepts, the Customer hereby irrevocably and unconditionally represents and warrants that:

- (A) the underlying transaction, all parties, locations, logistics, and any related arrangements are in full compliance with all Sanctions and Applicable Laws that the Bank is legally required to comply with in its country of operation, incorporation, or the jurisdiction of the underlying transaction, including but not limited to those imposed by the U.S. Office Of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), the United Security Council (UNSC), European Union (EU), the Ministry of Home Affairs (MOHA) of Malaysia and any other relevant Authority;
- (B) no party to the underlying transaction is a sanctioned entity or has primary business activities in jurisdictions subject to comprehensive Sanctions imposed by any Authority;
- (C) the shipment, trans-shipment or transit of Goods does not directly or indirectly involve any country, entity or person subject to comprehensive Sanctions imposed by any Authority; and
- (D) no representations, warranties or covenants made by the Customer in respect of any trade transaction shall be misleading or inaccurate in relation to all Sanctions and Applicable Laws that the Bank is legally required to comply with in its country of operation, incorporation or jurisdiction of the underlying transaction.

5.3 Notwithstanding the Bank's agreement to exclude, remove or amend the Sanctions

Clause under Clause 5.2 of the Trade Terms:

- (A) the Bank may, at its sole discretion, refuse to perform any obligations under the Instrument if it determines that such performance would likely contravene any Sanction or Applicable Law that the Bank is legally required to comply with in its country of operation, incorporation or the jurisdiction of the underlying transaction, even if the Instrument has been issued or confirmed;
- (B) the Bank, without prejudice to Clause 8 of the General Terms, shall not be liable for any Loss incurred by the Customer or any other party due to the exclusion or removal of the Sanctions Clause, the non-performance of the Instrument or any regulatory enforcement action; and
- (C) the Bank reserves the right to disclose details of the underlying transaction, Instrument and any related information to any Authority, correspondent bank or any entity imposing Sanctions if required by any Applicable Law.

5.4 In consideration of the Bank agreeing to exclude, remove or amend the Sanctions Clause under Clause 5.2 of the Trade Terms, the Customer irrevocably undertakes to:

- (A) without prejudice to Clause 11 of the General Terms, fully indemnify and hold the Bank harmless against any Loss arising from or related to the Bank's acceptance of the Customer's request to exclude or remove the Sanctions Clause; reimburse the Bank for any Loss, costs, expenses or legal fees, including but not limited to litigation costs, attorney fees, court fees, regulatory fines, penalties and any other professional advisory costs, including those incurred for engaging subject matter experts in Sanctions compliance, regulatory consultants, forensic auditors or other specialised professionals arising from regulatory inquiries, enforcement actions, legal proceedings or third-party claims related to the Customer's request; and

- (B) accept full recourse liability for any Losses or damages arising from any breach of the representations and warranties made under Clause 5.2 of the Trade Terms, including any misrepresentation, omission or failure to comply with any Sanction or Applicable Law that the Bank is legally required to comply with or that may otherwise expose the Bank to enforcement actions, penalties or restrictions in its country of operation, incorporation or any jurisdiction relevant to the underlying transaction.

5.5 Without prejudice to Clause 15.3 of the General Terms, Clause 5.4 of the Trade Terms shall survive the completion of any underlying transaction, termination of any Instrument or cessation of the banking relationship between the Customer and the Bank.

6. Documentary Credit Services

6.1 Where the Customer is specified as the beneficiary of an LC, any LC advised, confirmed, transferred or negotiated by the Bank shall be subject to the rules set out in the UCP or eUCP, as applicable.

6.2 In the event the Customer, as the beneficiary of an LC, makes a presentation to the Bank under such LC, the Customer shall submit the required documents as per the terms and conditions of the LC along with the original LC. The Bank may, but is not obliged to, examine the documents and notify the Customer of any discrepancies identified at its sole discretion.

6.3 The Customer authorises the Bank to present the documents submitted under Clause 6.2 of the Trade Terms to the issuing bank, including those containing discrepancies, at the Bank's sole discretion, without requiring prior approval from or further notification to the Customer.

6.4 Negotiation and discounting:

- (A) In the event the Customer, as the beneficiary of an LC, requests the Bank to:
- (1) negotiate a complying presentation as defined under the UCP or eUCP (as applicable);
 - (2) negotiate documents or electronic records after the issuance of a payment undertaking by an issuing bank; or
 - (3) discount a payment undertaking issued by an issuing bank, the Customer shall provide the Bank with all documents and/or electronic records required under the terms and conditions of the LC, in accordance with all Applicable Laws. Such documents include but are not limited to:

- (1) the original LC:
 - (a) in the case of LCs that are issued in physical form, the Customer shall provide the original copy of the LC, including any amendments to the original copy of the LC; and
 - (b) in the case of LCs that are issued in electronic form, the Customer shall provide the original format of the LC as deemed acceptable by the Bank, including any amendments to the original format of the LC;
- (2) all supporting documents and/or electronic records that the Bank may require in connection with the negotiation or discounting of the LC; and

- (3) evidence of a payment maturity undertaking issued by the issuing bank, confirming bank or any nominated bank effecting payment under the LC, or any other legally recognised obligation or guarantee that serves the same purpose as a payment commitment on a specified date by the issuing bank, confirming bank or any nominated bank.
- (B) For an LC subject to UCP or eUCP (as applicable), the Bank shall examine the documents and / or electronic records to determine whether they constitute a complying presentation in accordance with the UCP or eUCP (as applicable) and other applicable international standard banking practices. The Bank shall, at its sole discretion, accept or decline the Customer's request or discounting.
- (C) The Bank shall not be responsible for the form, sufficiency, accuracy, genuineness, falsification or legal effect of any documents and / or electronic records required under the LC that is presented to the Bank. Furthermore, the Bank is not liable for any Loss incurred in connection with the underlying transaction or the existence, quantity, quality, condition, packaging, delivery or value of the Goods or services to which such documents and / or electronic records relate.
- (D) The Customer acknowledges that where the Bank purchases an LC or export bill approved by the Bank ("Export Bill") drawn under an irrevocable LC which has been unconditionally accepted by the issuing bank of such Export Bill, all the Customer's rights, title, benefits and interests in, and claims for payment under the LC, Export Bill and all related Trade Documents, Goods and insurances and/or in the proceeds of the aforementioned shall be unconditionally and irrevocably transferred and/or assigned to the Bank and the Customer shall comply with all necessary requirements in connection with such transfer and/or assignment. The Customer represents and warrants that:

- (1) it has not and further undertakes that it shall not at any time agree to transfer, assign, create any encumbrance or otherwise deal with any of its rights, title, benefits, interests and claims in or under the LC or any related Trade Documents, Goods or insurances, or in the proceeds of any of the aforementioned items, to any person other than the Bank;
 - (2) it shall not take any action which may prejudice the assignment in this Clause 6.4(D) of the Trade Terms; and
 - (3) the Customer shall provide the Bank with all documents and/or electronic records that the Bank may require in connection with the purchase of the LC or Export Bill.
- (E) Without prejudice to Clause 6 of the General Terms, the Customer further represents and warrants to the Bank at all times that:
- (1) it has the right and authority to assign the benefit of the LC, all bills and all amounts expressed to be payable under the terms of the LC in the manner set out in these Trade Terms without the consent of any person;
 - (2) the LC, all bills and amounts expressed to be payable under the terms of the LC are valid and fully enforceable free from all encumbrances;

- (3) no compromise, concession, release or waiver has been made in relation to Clause 6.4(E)(2) above;
 - (4) the Customer is not aware of any dispute on payment between the Customer and any other person in relation to the LC, any bills or amounts expressed to be payable under the terms of the LC or the underlying transaction or documents which are subject of any bills;
 - (5) the Customer shall comply with all necessary requirements to preserve the validity of and enforceability of the LC, all bills and/or amounts expressed to be payable under the terms of the LC; and
 - (6) the Customer shall not permit any act, omission or thing that may preclude or hinder the Bank's demand for payment free from all deductions or withholdings.
- (F) The Customer undertakes that it shall not agree any amendments to any LC under which the Bank has agreed to negotiate and draw without the Bank's written consent.
- (G) The Bank has the right to assign and/or transfer part of or all its rights, benefits, interests and/or obligation arising from any application for negotiation or discounting without the Customer's prior written consent. Notwithstanding any such assignment and/or transfer of the Bank's rights, benefit, interests and/or obligations to a third party, the Customer's obligations under the Terms and all Finance Documents shall remain binding upon the Customer until payment has been made by the issuing bank and/or confirming bank of the related Trade Document in connection with the application for negotiation or discounting. The Customer's obligations under the Terms and all Finance Documents are independent of the Bank taking further action or providing notice to the Customer (which it is not obliged to).

- (H) If the Bank does not, for any reason whatsoever, receive payment from the issuing bank, confirmation bank or any other bank nominated by the issuing bank to effect payment to the Bank for an amount relating to the negotiation or discounting of any documents and/or electronic records as requested by the Customer, the Bank reserves the right of full recourse against the Customer. The Bank has the absolute right to demand and recover full reimbursement from the Customer for any amount advanced or any amount received by the Customer from the Bank under the negotiation or discounting of such documents and / or electronic records. The Customer shall make such payment to the Bank immediately upon demand, together with all applicable interest, fees, costs, expenses, charges and any other amounts due to the Bank in connection with such non-payment.
- (I) In addition to negotiating and discounting LCs, the Bank may, at its sole discretion, agree to purchase or discount other Instruments, including but limited to:
- (1) bills of exchange;
 - (2) promissory notes;
 - (3) irrevocable payment undertakings;
 - (4) deferred payment obligations;
 - (5) payment guarantees issued by financial institutions or other entities acceptable to the Bank;

and

- (6) Invoices with an irrevocable payment obligation by an obligor acceptable to the Bank.

- (J) Each Instrument purchased or discounted by the Bank must be supported by a genuine trade transaction and shall be subject to the Bank's internal credit policies, risk assessment criteria and applicable terms and conditions as determined by the Bank. The provisions of this Clause 6.4 of Trade Terms shall apply, with necessary modifications as determined by the Bank, to such Instruments or Payment Obligations.

7. Transfer of a Transferable LC

7.1 Partial Transfer:

If the Bank, at its sole discretion, is satisfied with the terms and conditions of a Transferable LC and agrees, at the Customer's request, to effect a partial transfer of the LC from the Customer (the "first beneficiary") to another person (the "second beneficiary"), the Bank shall act in its capacity as a transferring bank (the "Transferring Bank"). Upon effecting such transfer, the portion of the LC that has been transferred pursuant to the Bank's capacity as the Transferring Bank constitutes a transferred LC (the "Transferred LC").

- 7.2 The Customer shall provide the Bank with the following documents in accordance and compliance with the terms and conditions of the Transferable LC:

- (A) documents required under the Transferable LC, which the Customer must submit to the Bank (in its capacity as Transferring Bank) for the purposes of replacing and substituting the documents presented by the second beneficiary;
- (B) any additional documents necessary to constitute a complying presentation under the original LC;

- (C) any other documents that the Bank may require to fulfil its obligations under the LC; or

- (D) any other documents that the Bank may require to comply with the requirements of any party with whom the Bank interacts with in connection with the transfer.

- 7.3 The Customer shall deliver the documents specified in Clause 7.2 of the Trade Terms above immediately upon notification by the Bank, following:

- (A) the Bank's receipt of the presentation of documents;
- (B) a claim from the second beneficiary's banker; or
- (C) a claim directly from the second beneficiary, in each case, under the Transferred LC.

- 7.4 All proceeds received from the issuing bank under a Transferred LC shall be used to settle the claim presented by the second beneficiary. Where the Bank is the issuing bank and transferring bank, and the amount paid by the Bank in its capacity as issuing bank to itself in its capacity as transferring bank is insufficient to settle the second beneficiary's claim under a Transferred LC and cover all costs incurred by the Bank, the Customer hereby authorises the Bank to deduct the outstanding amount directly from the Customer's Account.

7.5 Full Transfer:

If the Bank, at its sole discretion, agrees to effect a full transfer of a Transferable LC from the Customer to the second beneficiary, the Customer shall not require the Bank to substitute any documents for presentation and shall permit the second beneficiary to present documents directly to the issuing bank of the Transferable LC.

8. LC Confirmation Service

8.1 Application of this Clause

- (A) This Clause 8 of the Trade Terms applies exclusively to the Service provided by the Bank to the Customer in relation to LC Confirmation (the “LC Confirmation Service”) whereby the Customer is the beneficiary of the LC and not the applicant. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not apply to any application by the Customer to issue an LC and nominate a confirming bank.
- (B) The Bank’s confirmation, whether under Issuing Bank-Nominated Confirmation or Silent Confirmation, applies strictly to the terms of the specific LC and does not extend beyond the terms of such LC.

8.2 Issuing Bank-Nominated Confirmation:

This Clause 8.2 of the Trade Terms applies when the issuing bank designates the Bank as the confirming bank for an LC, whereby:

- (A) the Bank is under no obligation to issue a confirmation notice (“LC Confirmation Notice”) to the Customer. However, if the Bank chooses to issue such notice, the Bank shall notify the Customer via any mode of Communication at the Bank’s sole discretion stating that confirmation has been added to the LC;
- (B) the Bank’s confirmation remains subject to its internal policies, including compliance checks, due diligence procedures and regulatory requirements including compliance with Sanctions, and Applicable Laws on dealing with restricted parties and high-risk entities;
- (C) the Bank reserves the right to decline or withdraw its confirmation, despite being nominated by the issuing bank, in order to comply with its internal risk framework and legal obligations; and

- (D) this Clause 8.2 of the Trade Terms and these Terms may be supplemented with terms and conditions in the LC Confirmation Notice (if applicable) issued to the Customer at the Bank’s sole discretion.

8.3 Silent Confirmation:

Silent Confirmation is a subset of LC Confirmation where the issuing bank does not designate a confirming bank but the Customer requires confirmation from a bank in their country, whereby:

- (A) the Bank provides an independent undertaking to guarantee payment to the Customer without being formally nominated by the issuing bank; and
- (B) as Silent Confirmation constitutes an independent contractual obligation between the Bank and the Customer, this Clause 8.3 of the Trade Terms does not modify or alter the original LC terms issued by the issuing bank.

8.4 The Bank’s obligations under Silent Confirmation is strictly limited to the obligations set out in Clause 8 of the Trade Terms.

8.5 Silent Confirmation does not constitute an absolute or unconditional guarantee of payment. The Bank’s obligation to honour the Silent Confirmation remains contingent upon the Customer’s compliance with the following conditions:

- (A) upon agreeing to provide Silent Confirmation, the Bank undertakes to pay the Customer upon submission of compliance documents, provided that the issuing bank has accepted the documents as compliant but subsequently fails to make payments due to reasons outlined in Clause 8.5(C) of the Trade Terms;

(B) the Bank's obligation to pay under the Silent Confirmation shall not exceed the LC value specified in the LC. Silent Confirmation does not apply where the issuing bank refuses to honour the LC due to document discrepancies, errors or non-compliance with the LC terms; and

(C) the Bank shall only be liable to make payment if the issuing bank fails to make payment due to:

(1) political or regulatory restrictions, including war, civil unrest, foreign exchange controls or a government moratorium preventing funds transfers; and / or

(2) issuing bank insolvency, including bankruptcy, liquidation, receivership or regulatory declaration of insolvency, where in each case, the onus is on the Customer to demonstrate that the issuing bank's failure to pay falls under Clause 8.5(C)(1) and Clause 8.5(C)(2) of the Trade Terms. Without proof to the satisfaction of the Bank, the Bank shall not be obliged to make payment.

8.6 In addition to Clause 8.5 of the Trade Terms, the Bank shall not be obliged to make payment under the Silent Confirmation and / or honour the Silent Confirmation in the event of the occurrence of any of the circumstances below:

(A) if the issuing bank refuses to make payment due to document discrepancies, errors, inconsistencies or non-compliance with the terms and conditions of the LC;

(B) where there is a dispute between the Customer and the applicant regarding the underlying sales contract, including but not limited to disputes over the quality, quantity or delivery of Goods or services;

(C) where the Bank is prohibited from making payment under any Applicable Laws, including Sanctions; or

(D) where the issuing bank refuses to pay due to allegations or reasonable suspicions of fraud, forgery or falsified documents, whether or not such fraud has been legally determined by a court of law, and in any of the above circumstances, the Bank is not responsible for any Loss incurred by the non-payment of the Silent Confirmation.

8.7 The Customer's failure to comply with Clause 8 of the Trade Terms will result in the Silent Confirmation being invalid.

8.8 The Customer shall ensure that all documents required under the LC are presented to the Bank for the Bank's handling.

8.9 The Customer shall not transfer, assign or create security interests over the LC proceeds without the prior written consent of the Bank. Unauthorised transfers or assignments will render the Silent Confirmation null and void.

8.10 The Customer acknowledges that upon the Bank making a payment under the Silent Confirmation, all rights to the LC proceeds shall be assigned to the Bank and the Customer shall comply with all necessary requirements in connection with such assignment.

8.11 Upon the Bank making a payment under Silent Confirmation, the Customer irrevocably assigns all rights to the LC proceeds to the Bank, including title and interest rights under the underlying contract and all other relevant documents. The Customer further agrees, at the request of the Bank, to sign and deliver notices of assignment and shall ensure that such notices are legally enforceable against the issuing bank and all other relevant parties. The Customer assumes full responsibility for ensuring that the assignment complies with all Applicable Laws governing such assignments.

8.12 If the issuing bank subsequently makes payment, the Customer shall immediately transfer the full amount received to the Bank without any deductions or set-offs. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that such funds are rightfully owed to the Bank and any delay or failure to transfer the funds shall constitute a breach of these Terms.

8.13 The Bank reserves the absolute right to terminate the Silent Confirmation granted by it to the Customer at its sole discretion if the Customer breaches any of its obligations under the Terms or any Finance Document. In such an event, the Bank is not liable for any Loss or consequence arising from such termination, including any Loss resulting from the underlying LC or the Customer's contractual obligations. The Customer shall have no right to object to or dispute the Bank's decision.

8.14 The Customer further acknowledges that the Bank may, at its sole discretion, terminate the Silent Confirmation if the creditworthiness of the issuing bank deteriorates significantly. The Bank shall not be liable for any such Losses or disputes arising from such termination and the Customer unconditionally accepts that the Bank's decision is final and not subject to challenge.

8.15 If there are any legal or regulatory changes to any Applicable Law that restricts the Bank from continuing to provide Silent Confirmation and Services in connection with it, the Bank reserves the right to terminate the Silent Confirmation and such Services with immediate effect without any liability. The Bank shall not be held responsible for any Loss resulting from such termination and the Customer expressly waives any right to object or seek recourse against the Bank in this regard.

9. Trade financing

9.1 The Customer shall provide the Bank at the Bank's request with a copy or the original of each underlying transaction document (each a "Transaction Document") in relation to which the Bank is requested to accept, negotiate, purchase, discount or finance any

Draft, LC or Invoice, and any other document or evidence which the Bank may require in relation to the Transaction Documents.

9.2 If the Bank requests, the Customer shall in relation to any Advance execute and deliver to the Bank an original Draft drawn to the Bank's order and in the form as stipulated by the Bank.

9.3 The Customer is liable for any amount which the Bank loans, accepts, negotiates, purchases, discounts, advances or makes available to the Customer (an "Advance") including any interest, fees, costs and expenses accrued or incurred on a full recourse or full indemnity basis.

9.4 Unless otherwise stated in any Transaction Document, any Service provided under these Trade Terms (each a "Trade Facility") shall be on an uncommitted basis. The Bank may terminate or cancel any Trade Facility at any time the Bank deems fit without assigning any reason. The Bank may at any time:

(A) declare that all Advances, together with accrued interest and all other Payment Obligations under any and all Trade Facilities shall become immediately due and payable by the Customer;

(B) terminate any Trade Facility immediately;

(C) require the Customer to provide Cash Collateral for any or all the Customer's contingent or unmatured liabilities pursuant to any Third Party Payment Instrument;

(D) exercise any or all rights, remedies, powers or discretions under the Finance Documents (including the enforcement of all or any part of any Cash Collateral or security); and/or

(E) withdraw from any Account the Customer holds with the Bank such amounts to be applied in satisfaction of all Payment Obligations.

9.5 The rate of interest for each Advance shall (before and after judgement) be the amount notified by the Bank to the Customer from time to time. Interest for an Advance shall be calculated on the amount of the outstanding Advance from and including the date the Bank provides the Advance to the Customer to and excluding the date which that Advance is paid or repaid in full.

9.6 The Customer must on the Bank's demand repay the Bank all outstanding Advances, accrued interest and outstanding fees, cost and expenses relating to the Advances on the date which the Bank stipulates but in any event (and even if the Bank does not demand) no later than the relevant Maturity Date. Unless specified otherwise, the Bank shall have the right to apply the amounts the Bank receives from the Customer in such manner and order the Bank sees fit and any such application shall override any appropriation made by the Customer. If the Customer requests, the Bank may agree to the prepayment of an Advance. If the Bank does, the Customer agrees that the Bank may make any interest adjustments if the Customer repays an Advance before the designated Maturity Date.

9.7 Unless the Bank specifies otherwise, the Maturity Date for any Draft the Bank purchases shall be (in the case of sight Drafts) twenty-one (21) days from the date of the Advance and (in the case of usance Drafts) twenty-one (21) days from date of maturity of the relevant Draft.

9.8 The Customer may not without the Bank's prior consent do anything or omit to do anything which may prejudice the full recovery or payment of any Draft, LC or Invoice under any Trade Facility.

9.9 The Customer must ensure that all sale proceeds or payments made under or pursuant to: (A) any Advance the Bank provides to the Customer; or (B) any Draft, LC, Invoice or Transaction Document the Bank accepts, negotiates, purchases, discounts or finances for the Customer, must be credited to the Bank or directed to an account designated by the Bank in full. Any payment Instruction in respect of the above must be irrevocable. The Customer must provide the Bank with any and all assistance the Bank may require to collect such payment. The Bank may apply the amounts the Bank receives against any Payment Obligation.

9.10 In respect of any discounting or financing of any Invoice, the Customer represents that:

- (A) the transaction(s) underlying each Invoice is bona fide and represents a sale of goods which have been delivered or services which have been performed;
- (B) the Customer has full right, title and interest in that Invoice and the underlying Transaction Documents;
- (C) there is no dispute with any party in relation to that Invoice and the underlying Transaction Documents which may give rise to a right of termination, rejection, counterclaim, set-off or similar claim in favour of a third party;
- (D) the obligations assumed by each of the parties to the underlying Transaction Documents are legal and valid obligations binding on it;
- (E) no encumbrance exists over all or any part of that Invoice or the underlying Transaction Documents;
- (F) the Customer has not obtained any financing in relation to the Invoice or the underlying Transaction Documents other than from the Bank;
- (G) the Customer has not received any monies under or pursuant to that Invoice or the underlying Transaction Documents by way of payment and which have not been directed to the Bank;
- (H) the Customer has not exercised any right of set-off or counterclaim in relation to that Invoice or the underlying Transaction Documents;

- (I) no prior consent from any third party is required for any such discounting or financing of such Invoice to be effective and there is no restriction on any such discounting or financing of such Invoice (including but not limited to any restriction on transfer or assignment); and
- (J) no claims, demands, actions or proceedings against the Customer have been made, commenced or threatened pursuant to or arising out of or in connection with the underlying Transaction Documents.

The representations shall be made on the date the Customer signs the relevant Finance Document and on each subsequent date until all the Payment Obligations have been satisfied or discharged in full.

9.11 In relation to any request by the Customer for the Bank to accept a summary statement of Invoices in lieu of Transaction Documents, the Customer:

- (A) shall submit to the Bank a summary statement of Invoices (signed by the Customer's Authorised Signatories) with the following information in form and substance acceptable to the Bank:
 - (1) names and address of the parties to the trade transaction;
 - (2) specific description of the Goods which is the subject of the trade transaction;
 - (3) financial value of the trade transaction;
 - (4) terms and conditions for the settlement of the trade transaction; and
 - (5) the dates and Invoice numbers;
- (B) acknowledges that the Bank's agreement to provide the Service to the Customer is in full reliance upon the said summary statement of Invoices which the Customer represents to be true at all times;

- (C) acknowledges and agrees that it could be barred from enjoying any further Service from the Bank should the Customer be found to have abused the approval to use the summary statement of Invoices;
- (D) shall at all times allow the Bank to conduct periodic checks of the summary statement of Invoices against the original individual Invoices, from time to time to determine the genuineness of the related trade transactions;
- (E) shall not use the Invoices to obtain further financing from other financial institutions;
- (F) shall ensure that all related Invoices are marked with the notation that such Invoices have been tendered to the Bank for financing; and
- (G) shall forward to the Bank such documents as the Bank may request in writing from time to time.

10. Documentary Collection

- 10.1 Any Documentary Collection the Bank undertakes for the Customer will be done pursuant to the rules of the URC. In particular, the Customer acknowledges that pursuant to the rules of the URC, the Bank assumes no liability or responsibility for the form, sufficiency, accuracy, genuineness, falsification or legal effect of any document(s) that is presented to the Bank for Documentary Collection.
- 10.2 The Bank will act in accordance with the Instructions set out in the relevant Finance Document for this Service.
- 10.3 The Bank will pay the Customer the proceeds of any Documentary Collection after the Bank receives payment of the relevant amount by collecting bank.

- 10.4 The Bank has the discretion to select a correspondent bank to support any Documentary Collection. The Bank reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to reject any correspondent bank proposed by the Customer.

11. Electronic Trade Service Platform

11.1 Customer access via third-party entities

The Bank may enter into agreements with third-party entities, including third-party service providers, to enable Customers to use an Electronic Trade Service Platform for the submission and processing of electronic Trade Documents. The Customer acknowledges that:

- (A) access to the Electronic Trade Service Platform is granted solely through the Bank's arrangement with the third-party entity;
- (B) the use of the Electronic Trade Service Platform is subject to these Terms and the terms and conditions set by both the Bank and the third-party entity; and
- (C) the Customer's rights and obligations are defined under these Terms and the terms and conditions set by both the Bank and the third-party entity and the Bank is not responsible for the Customer's direct relationship with the provider of the Electronic Trade Service Platform unless expressly agreed.

11.2 Bank's obligations

The Bank's role in facilitating trade transactions via an Electronic Trade Service Platform is limited to the following:

- (A) The Bank does not operate, manage or control the underlying technology or infrastructure of any third-party Electronic Trade Service Platform; and

- (B) The Bank does not guarantee uninterrupted access, accuracy or security of an Electronic Trade Service Platform and reserves the right to modify, suspend or discontinue its use at its sole discretion, including in cases where:

- (1) the Electronic Trade Service Platform provider ceases to provide services or experiences operational failures;
- (2) regulatory, compliance or security concerns arise that impact continued use; and
- (3) there is a significant change in any trade digitisation policy, Applicable Law and/or global trade framework which requires modifications.

11.3 Bank's compliance

- (A) The Bank's obligation to process any transaction and trade finance request in accordance with the Customer's Instructions is subject to:

- (1) the Bank's internal policies;
- (2) the terms and conditions set by any relevant third party service providers whose services are required in connection with any such transaction; and
- (3) all Applicable Laws.
