

Online Bill Payment (Local) FAQs

1. What is Bill Payment?

Bill payment is a free service that allows you to pay your miscellaneous bills electronically. All that you need is a SGD Current or Savings Account (for debiting of payment) and the bill reference number.

2. Who can I pay to?

You can pay bills to any of our participating billing organisations. Click here for the list of billing organisations.

Look out for more participating billing organisations as we are constantly enhancing our Maybank2u.com.sg (Online Banking).

3. How do I know my bill reference number?

Your bill reference number is provided by the billing organisation, and is usually the account/card number printed on your payment/invoice slip. If you are unsure, please check with your billing organisation.

4. Can I make a payment without having maintain a payee with other banks in Update Payee List?

As a security measure, you are required to maintain a payee in Update Payee List before able to make a payment.

5. What is the maximum amount for bill payment per day?

The default limit is set at S$3,000 per day. If you wish to increase your transaction limit up to a maximum of S$20,000, please mail us the completed Daily Transaction Limit Update Request Form.
